

Using eMagazines from the Library of Virginia

eMagazines are now available on OverDrive and the Libby app through the Library of Virginia. Access these publications from a web browser through the Library of Virginia's Find It Virginia collection or in the Libby app by adding the Library of Virginia as an additional library.

The Library of Virginia selection features digital editions of more than 3,000 magazines. These publications are always available without waitlists or holds and can be renewed indefinitely.

Access eMagazines using a web browser

1. Go to finditva.overdrive.com/library/magazines.
2. Click the "Sign In" button in the upper-right.
3. Use the drop-down menu to select Loudoun County Public Library.
4. Enter your library card number and PIN (your birthdate in a MMDDYY format) and click "Sign In."
5. Once you've found a magazine, click "Borrow."

Access eMagazines using the Libby app

Libby is the free app from OverDrive that lets you borrow, download and read on an Android or iOS device. (Download Libby: Android | iOS) To access the magazine collection, you will need to add the Library of Virginia as an additional library on your Libby account. Please note: Magazines can only be found in the Library of Virginia's Libby collection – not in LCPL's Libby collection.

1. Open the Libby app on your device.
2. Open the settings menu by tapping the round icon in the top right corner.
3. In the settings menu, tap "Add A Library."
